THE MENACE

Although not this formally, MRS. MIDDLETON is surrounded by "her eighteen other boys" every morning during homeroom period.

"TO OUR FRIEND" (Dedication)

The Senior Class of 1955 is proud to dedicate this edition of the SWAMP FOX to MRS. MARIE MIDDLETON in recognition of her interest and efforts on behalf of our class through our years in high school and the entire school and student body.

Perhaps her experiences every day in raising her family of five sons have made her more sympathetic to our problems as boys and girls. In any event, she has always been standing by with a helping hand or a word of advice.

Those whom she terms "her eighteen other boys", who have been in her homeroom for the past three years and have had her help, sympathy, and guidance in their progress to graduation day, have a special fondness for her.

Mrs. Middleton has never failed to be ready to help with any problem that anyone carried to her although she certainly carried a full schedule with her teaching duties, her task as advisor to the Student Council, and assisting in all of the many other school functions.

This is our way of giving her a small "thank you" and recognizing her help to our class and school.

Caring for her own five boys: JOHN, ARTIE, RONNIE, PENCE, and LANE is, of course, one of MRS. MIDDLETON'S most important tasks.

MR. TOLLISON, our principal, and MR. JOYNER, our superintendent, look over the beginning of work on the new addition

“THE BOSSES” (Administration)

Through the efforts of our administrators the construction of a new addition to M. H. S. is underway. Aside from their regular duties the administration devoted much valuable time to this project and also to the plans for the new grammar school

The more routine duties of our officials include much time spent in planning our school program and in keeping the every day affair of our constantly enlarging system running smoothly.

"Politicians" (The Student Council)

Activities, including Friday night dances, a model meeting put on for the P. T. A., timely programs presented over the P. A. system, guest speakers who led panel discussions, and general service to the school kept the M. H. 5 Student Council members busy all year. The members, selected by popular vote, were easily spotted around school because they wore, as identification, arm bands of the National Association of Student Councils.

President Richard Ammons, Secretary-Treasurer Ellen Davis, and faculty advisor Mrs. Marie Middleton had the responsibility for planning this year's many projects.

'WRITING'— (and Classes)

Drifting from the open transoms of the English classes we hear discussions on verbs, adjectives, subjects, predicates, and Milton, as well as recordings and movies of Macbeth and Julius Caesar. In our English classes we not only attain a broader knowledge of our mother tongue but we also learn of the great men of literature and their works.

Issuing forth from the library we hear the sounds of the rustling of file cards and an anxious voice asking, "How much is my fine?" Stories of great men and their even greater contributions to mankind are found in the library, where Miss Moore is always to be found.

modern Russia. In these classes we learn about the past as well as the future along with how and why nations are great.

The math classes create sounds of scraping chalk as triangles, square roots, and multiplication examples are placed on the blackboard. We learn in math classes how to solve math problems which we may encounter in everyday life.

All these sounds and the things which they represent tend to make better sons and daughters today and better citizens tomorrow.

"THE BRAINS" (The Beta Club)

'Character' 'Leadership' 'Achievement' These are the ideals stressed by the National Beta Club. Consisting of Juniors and Seniors whose average is ninety or above, the Beta Club hopes to promote better citizenship for tomorrow.

With the cooperation of the Student Council the M. H. S. Beta Club sponsored programs on varied subjects during the school year. Also, along with their advisor, Miss Grace Johnson, a large percentage of the thirty-four members attended the annual convention in Columbia, on April 29 and 30.

M. H. S. Beta Club leaders for the 1954-1955 school year were Markie Bethea, president, Richard Ammons, vice-president, Tommy Casque, secretary, and Sara Hodges, treasurer.

(The Science Club)

The fingerprinting of Miss Norman, sponsor for the Science Club, took place the night the club visited the Marion Police Station. During the year the organization included in its many varied activities visits to the hospital and police station, a nature hike, and a guest speaker who spoke on Edison. Also they had several programs on topics like polio and heart diseases.

The club is composed of eight members with Mary Lewis Harrelson as president, Rosalie Bumbarger as vice-president; Jean Owens as treasurer; and Bobbie Jean Andrews as secretary.

Personality and character, which are considered the foundation of successful teaching, are the qualities the F. T. A. seeks to encourage young people to cultivate in themselves.

The Esther Stackhouse Chapter of the Future Teachers Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Marie C. Stanley, also strives to acquaint its twenty-four members with the story of the public schools, and to provide them with current information about opportunities in the various fields of education.

In addition to taking charge of “Open House”, the club also presented a series of programs during National Education Week. Several members also attended the state convention which was held at Lander College in Greenwood.

“HANDYMEN” (Janitors and Maintenance Staff)

Spending the larger part of their day cleaning halls and classrooms, Zenobia Davis and Buster Wilson, our janitorial staff, are responsible for keeping M. H. S. presentable. Zenobia and Buster are pictured as they clean the lower hall, a daily task.

Keeping our school “shipshape” is the responsibility entrusted to our maintenance staff, Mr. Bill Davis and his assistant, Willie Williamson. Though Willie was absent the day the picture was taken, Mr. Davis was caught as he trimmed a board for some miscellaneous use.

Pictured below is a scene of the erection of the new addition to M. H. S. As well as providing better facilities for future students, it will call upon our janitorial and maintenance staffs for even more varied and efficient services.

JEWELL PAULINE ELVIS

A more subtle but critical error is the use of the `if` statement to check for the presence of the `id` attribute. The code uses `if (id)`, which is true for any non-empty string, even if it's not a valid ID. This means that the code will attempt to parse the XML even if the `id` attribute is missing or invalid.

THE LITTLE EXTRAS

OUR CLASSWORK

Which kept up our interest in life, especially since DENNIS always had a little extra to add himself.

PHYLLIS ALTMAN and MARKEY BETHEA assist CAROLYN DUSENBURY and JOE WILLIAMS in the business department

“RAVING REPORTERS” (Fox Tales)

Thirty members, chosen from all classes, made up this year's Fox Tales staff. These young journalists produced a mimeographed issue every two weeks and also rushed out “Extras” on special occasions

Many new ideas for the Fox Tales were acquired when members of the staff attended the District press meeting that was held in Mullins. The Fox Tales is a member of the South Carolina Scholastic Press Association

"YEAR-BOOKERS"

(The Swamp Fox)

"Top Secret" was the by-word of the Annual staff this year. Early in the year the staff began planning a campaign built around "Mr. X", who was Dennis the Menace, the creation of Mr. Hank Ketchum. Throughout the year the staff worked on sketches and ideas for the antics of "Mr. X". At the same time they cropped, retouched, and rejected pictures, wrote writeups, sold ads and animals, cussed and discussed the editors, the advisor, and the absent members, and after sending the book off to be printed, anxiously awaited its return.

Typists CAROLYN DUSENBURY, ELDIS CULBRETH, and MARY LEWIS HARBETSON prepare pages for a forthcoming issue while MRS. STRICKLAND, faculty advisor, checks some art work. Mimeographers EDWARD POWERS, WARREN PEEBLES, and WILLIAM FOXWORTH operate the machine as EVELYN MARTIN checks the typed work. Checking the budget are BETTY JO WHITE, exchange editor, and MARIE LANE, business manager.

Singing their way through the year to a climax, the presentation of the operetta "Hearts and Blossoms", the M. H. S. Glee Clubs, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Williams, enjoyed a lively year. The Senior Glee Club is composed of girls from the three top grades and the Choral Club is made up of girls from the three lower grades

The Senior Sextette, accompanied by Jane Nettles the Junior Octette, accompanied by Anne Davis, and the Choraliers, accompanied by Joanne Martin, constitute the three school sponsored music groups also under the direction of Mrs. Alice Williams

"FUTURE SOUSAS" (Band)

The flare of trumpets, a roll of drums, and the majorettes lead the band, dressed in gold and black, onto the field! This scene was repeated at ten half-time football game performances by Director Hal Middleton's 30-piece marching band. Included in these performances were a precision drill by 16 cadeterettes, and a novelty number, the "Red Skin Ramble" which was executed in darkness except for lights on the hats of the members.

Playing to a full house each night, the concert band presented its annual spring concert on May 12 and 13. "Memories of Stephen Foster", an overture and a novelty tune, "The Hunting Scene" were included in the program.

Sara Hodges, Captain; Dorothy Gasque, First Lieutenant; Jon Howell, Second Lieutenant; Ann Snipes, Sergeant; and Joy Polson, Corporal; were elected officers as the band went military this year for the first time. Out front, Sally Mason led the majorettes, and Phyllis Altman was in charge of the Color Guard.

KING FRANK and QUEEN JANE took posed with their crowning as crown bearers LINDA and RONNIE stand by.

"BIG FRIDAY" (Homecoming)

Some hard members look sad as they face the fact that love must be cut.

A parade, a tea, a speculative glimpse into the future, and a football victory made our Homecoming Day a busy one. Climax of the activities was the announcement and crowning of King Frank Boatwright and Queen Jane Nettles.

This formal coronation headlined a day that began with the traditional parade of sponsors, which gave us a possible idea of the future king and queen of 1964, represented by little Miss Linda Brown and Master Ronnie Middleton. Following the parade, an afternoon tea was held by the school for the senior players and their sponsors.

In the evening, the Foxes scored a 20-6 football victory over Aynor to keep spirits high, and then the coronation ball, held in the gym, provided a relaxing finish to an enjoyable day.

DEAN drew the pleasant job of lending a hand to MARY LEWIS and the other sponsors during the pre-game ceremony.

"BLOCK AND TACKLE GANG"

(Football Team)

Ten days of summer workout at Camp Mondamin, in Tuxedo, N. C., preceded the 5-3-2 season of Coaches Jack Lyon's and John Evans' Foxes.

Moving to the Lower State finals by defeating Cheraw 13-7, the Foxes were knocked out of the running by Barnwell to the tune of 43-7.

M. H. S. tackles Frank Boatwright and Neil Padgett both received the honor of playing in the Tobacco Bowl held in Florence. At the close of the season, Frank placed on the all-state team, and Neil rated an honorable mention.

Checking equipment is one of the many jobs done by M. H. S., J. H. S., BOBBY HUGHES and BOBBY STEPHENSON.

"VARSITY CAGEMEN"

(Boys' Basketball Team)

On the hardwood, Coach Jack Lyon's Hoopsters advanced to the semi-finals of the Lower State playoffs before being knocked out of the running by a tall Bamberg team. In the preliminary District playoffs, the Foxes successfully defended their District 12 title by taking Myrtle Beach 49-36, and dropping Wampee 65-49. As a result of their outstanding play and sportsmanship, Markey Bethea, M. H. S. center, and Carlton Shelly, Fox guard, were selected for the Class "B" All-District team.

"FUTURE HOOPSTERS"

(Girls' Midget Team)

Working toward better varsity teams for the future, Mrs. Mary Carter's Midget Girls brought home the Bennettsville midget team trophy for the second straight year.

As their season came to a close, the score book showed an unblemished record.

(Boys' Midget Team)

Where you find a winning varsity team you usually find a good midget team. The purpose of Coach John Evans' Midget Boys team is to build better varsities through an early start in training. Coach Evans' squad members played games with Mullins, Rains-Centenary, and other neighboring towns.

"HIT AN' RUN BOYS" (Baseball)

Although Coach Jack Lyon's baseball team has only played four games as our book goes to press, these games would not hold M. H. S. from an undefeated season, as the Fox nine came through victorious in all four.

Losing only four starters from last season, and having All-State Candidate Pitcher Billy Bullard and Catcher Joseph Ricks back as the battery, Coach Lyon's club will again be defending their District and perhaps Lower State titles.

The club is composed of athletes who have played one-half the total quarters or innings of all of the games, along with cheerleaders and managers. Before mid-term exams, the Block “M” Club presented a timely program on cheating.

This year’s officers were Neil Padgett, president; Frank Boatwright, vice-president; and Joe Williams, secretary-treasurer.

Beanies of gold and black, new pep songs and yells, along with many other original brainstormers were the activities of the Pep Club. The Pep Club was organized by and is closely connected with the cheerleaders.

During football season, the Pep Club and cheerleaders sponsored pep rallies before each ball game, and also the annual snake dance and bon-fire preceding the Marion-Mullins football game.

Pep Club officers were Joe Williams president; Sara Jean Mason, vice-president; Manette Layton, secretary-treasurer; Rose Wood, reporter; and H. D. Faulk, sergeant-at-arms.

We, the "SWAMP FOX" Staff, thank all of our advertisers and contributors — Lewis-Page Studio for the fine quality pictures in our book — Stone's Studio for the excellent portraits — The R. L. Bryan Company for the fine engraving and printing — Mrs. Inez Edwards for keeping our money straight — our principal Mr. Tollison, for his help and advice — our advisor Mr. John O. Lewis, Jr., for his patience in working with us — the administration faculty and entire student body for their patience and cooperation during picture taking and re-taking — and especially Mr. Hank Ketcham the creator of "Dennis the Menace", who so graciously consented to our using his character in our yearbook.

MR. KETCHAM is shown in the nursery dreaming up ideas for his little rascal.
